Newsman Hear Wedler's Story Of Murder

Gov. O'Neill Gives Okay To Lie Test For Dr. Sheppard

DELAND, Fla. (AP)—Donald J. Wedler, whose statements have revived interest in the Marilyn Sheppard slaying and brought new hope for her imprisoned husband, repeated his recollection of events at Cleveland, Ohio, in early July, 1954, for newsmen Friday night.

Wedler, 23, told essentially the same story he gave Sheriff Rodney Thursby Monday night.

The prisoner, who is awaiting trial for prison escape, was the coolest of the 28 persons crowded into the sheriff's office at Volusia County jail.

On either side of Wedler were Erle Stanley Gardner, mystery writer, and Alex Gregory, lie detector expert, both representatives of the Court of Last Resort which is investigating the Sheppard case.

Gardner is one of the founders of the court, organized to help persons unjustly convicted of crimes.

Wedler Telling Truth
Gregory said after two days of tests with the lie detector that Wedler is telling the truth or what he believes to be the truth.

The prisoner's statement has resulted in permission from Ohio's Gov. C. William O'Neill for the Court of Last Resort to give lie detector tests to Dr. Samuel Sheppard in prison.

Gardner said they will start next week and will be given by Gregory LeMoyné Snyder, John E. Reid and C. B. Hanscom. This team of experts has tested other members of the Sheppard family for Gardner's organization.

Wedler answered questions naturally and appeared sincere.

He said he went to a house in Cleveland and hit a woman on the head with an iron pipe when she coughed as he was ransacking her bedroom.

"I am certain I didn't hit her more than three or four times," Wedler said when pressed on this point.

Experts testified Mrs. Sheppard was hit 35 times.

Met Man On Stairs
Wedler said he met a man at the top of the stairs on his way out and hit him once.

Sheppard said the intruder in his house the early hours of July 4, 1954, when his wife was slain, grappled with him inside and outside the house. Sheppard said he was knocked out twice and described his assailant as large with dark bushy hair.

Wedler is 5 feet 11. He appeared thin but muscular at the interview and his yellowish blond hair was long and wavy.

Continuing his story, Wedler said he went out to the house and behind it to a lake. "I ran along the edge of the beach 3, 4, or 500 yards," he said. "I stopped and I didn't see anyone."

Saying he read where Sheppard said he chased a man, Wedler added: "Dr. Sheppard may have chased someone but I didn't see him."

Hitchhiker To East
Wedler said he hitchhiked out of Cleveland to the East.

"I didn't know I had killed her at all until I read about it," he said.

He followed the story in newspapers then, he added, but hasn't read anything about it since 1954.

Wedler has been in jail or prison most of the time since then for a robbery at Tampa. He escaped from a state prison camp here June 11, was recaptured within 24

Area Farmers Fined For Excess Planting

LISBON — The federal government took action recently against five county farmers in wheat penalty cases.

Judgment liens were filed last week in Common Pleas Court against the following farmers: Herbert Sanor, East Rochester, $346.68 in penalty and $43.40 in costs; William Evans, Minerva RD 2, $260.01 and $45.20; Frank Saffell, Knox Township, $364.87 and $43.20; Walter Warrington, Leetonia RD, $310.30 and $42.60; and Herman Noling, Kensington, $26.80 costs.

The county office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee at Lisbon said it received results of the hearings, held in the U.S. District Court at Cleveland from the state ASC office in Columbus.

Sanor, Evans, Saffell and Warrington on planted in excess of their quotas, while Noling, within his quota, refused to permit field men to measure his acreage. All the cases were filed within the last three years, the state office at Columbus said.

CHECK CONFESSION—Officials in Deland, Fla., get ready to check the confession of convict Donald Wedler that he beat to death a Cleveland, Ohio, woman about the same time Marilyn Sheppard was murdered. Her husband, Dr. Sam Sheppard, is serving life for the celebrated slaying. The officials are Volusia County Sheriff Rodney Thursby, left, and lie detector expert Alex Gregory of Detroit.

Teamster Boss Is Acquitted

Hoffa Now In Position To Succeed Dave Beck

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa Friday of charges he conspired and bribed to plant a spy on the staff of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

Hoffa, 44-year-old Midwest Teamsters boss, immediately announced he would get together with friends in Chicago within the next few days to decide on "my future activities in the union."

At present, there is little doubt in the labor movement that Hoffa can take over Beck's spot if he wants it, or name who he wants as Teamsters president.

Hoffa flew to Detroit Friday night. In response to a question there, he said he financed his trial defense entirely from his own funds, and that he had declined offers by several locals to raise a defense fund for him. He said he had mortgaged his home, cottage and automobile.

Members of the senate committee, headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), were plainly disappointed with the trial outcome.

The vice chairman, Sen. Ives (R-N.Y.), said he felt the verdict was "a miscarriage of justice."

Committee counsel Robert Kennedy said the committee was going ahead with "our investigation of Hoffa."

McClellan said Hoffa's name will figure in the committee's next target—the labor situation in the New York area—and that the union official may be called as a witness.

Hoffa also facts federal wiretap charges in New York based on the accusation he conspired to tap his own office telephones in Detroit.

The union which Friday cleared Hoffa apparently believed his story over that of John Cye Cheasty, the Senate committee investigator Hoffa was accused of paying to get committee secrets.

Cheasty testified he did relay committee data to Hoffa, but only after informing the committee and the FBI of the alleged plot. A series of FBI agents bolstered Cheasty's story.

Testifying in his own defense, Hoffa said he hired Cheasty only to advise him as an attorney.

Hoffa looked straight at the jury when the "not guilty" verdict was announced. "It proves once again," he said afterward, "that if you are honest and tell the truth you have nothing to fear."

He was cited early Friday morning on Rt. 172, west of Lisbon, by village police.

FINED, JAILED IN LISBON
LISBON — Robert W. Arnold, 26, of East Liverpool, was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail after he pleaded guilty at a hearing Friday before Acting Mayor Felix Butch on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

He was cited early Friday morning on Rt. 172, west of Lisbon, by village police.

Two Drivers Hurt In Rt. 46 Collision
Oliver Yarian, 72, of East Palestine was injured in a two-car collision on Route 46, a half mile west of New Waterford, Friday at 8:35 p.m.

State patrolmen said Yarian's car was struck by an automobile operated by James E. Cope, 19, of Rogers, who went left of center on a curve.

Yarian, admitted to Salem City Hospital for treatment of lacerations of the right knee and contusions of the nose and face, is reported in fair condition today.

Cope was treated for lacerations of the chest and hand at City Hospital and dismissed.

Cope was charged with driving left of center, the state patrol reported today.

City Share Of Street Paving To Be $21,790

City Council Plans Special Meetings To Enact Legislation

The city's share of having State, Mill, and Newgarden Streets resurfaced will be $21,790, Mayor Dean Cramer told City Council Friday night at a special meeting held in City Hall.

The mayor received a letter Friday from William B. Quicksall, chief of Division 11 of the state highway department, saying that repave the three streets would be $38,580. This actually will be cut in half however, since the state has agreed to finance 50 per cent of the costs.

Council will hold three special meetings next week to enact an ordinance to cooperate with the highway department to resurface the streets over which State Routes 62, 14, and 9 pass.

Council will meet at 5:30 p.m. Monday, at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday and 7:30 a.m. Wednesday in the council chamber in city hall.

The county commissioners voiced their approval July 5 in Lisbon to provide $7,500 toward the project. The commissioners had met at that time with City Council President Curtis Vaughan and Councilman Rudy Linder and Arthur Ham.

The county will provide $5,000 for State St. and $2,500 toward Mill and Newgarden.

Council had adopted a resolution June 18 to have State St. repaved and on July 2 at a special meeting the councilmen passed another resolution to pave Mill St. and Newgarden Ave.

State St. will be paved from Ellsworth Ave. to the west and from Lincoln Ave. to the east. Three downtown section will not be touched.

Even with the state's participation to the amount of $29,290 the city will be responsible for adjustments to line and grading of valve boxes, manhole covers and catch basins along the street.

Originally it was felt that the cost of the project would be $45,000 leaving the city, with the county's help, with a cost of only $15,000.

Quicksall had told Mayor Cramer two weeks ago that the state highway department in Columbus had informed him (Quicksall) that he was supposed "to cut his city programs to the bone and if any city work is to be done, the money is to be taken from the construction fund."

The department told Quicksall that no extra money is available for city participation.

All three streets will be as asphalt concrete. A complete resurfacing of State St. within the city would cost an estimated $80,000.

The street has been resurfaced three times in the past, with the state helping on two occasions.

Civil Rights Foes Scent Victory

Hope To Kill 'Vicious' Portion Of Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern foes of the civil rights bill scented victory today in their efforts to erase what they called the "most vicious part" of the measure.

With supporters of the bill split over compromise moves, Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Dixie forces, told newsmen he was "very hopeful" the Senate would adopt an amendment to strike out part 3 of the House-passed measure.

That part would authorize the attorney general to obtain federal court injunctions to project civil rights generally. Southern senators have protested it could be used to force racial integration in schools and other public places.

Russell said he hoped for a vote no later than Tuesday, Monday if possible, on an amendment of Sens. Anderson (D-NM) and Aiken (R-Vt.) to rip out this section of the bill.

Republican and Democratic efforts for a compromise that would remove some of the opposition to part 3 collapsed suddenly late Friday afternoon.

Senate Republican leader Knowland of California said he had concluded no substitute could be worked out "to meet the situation and the desires of the various people with whom we have been discussing it."

He said he was prepared to let the vote come on the Anderson-Aiken amendment rather than attempt to get a vote first on an amendment or substitute softening the terms of part 3.

With this word from Knowland, Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), a leader of northern Democrats backing the bill, promptly told newsmen that an amendment he had prepared to modify part 3 would not now be offered. Humphrey had said he intended to offer it with bipartisan support.

After these developments, Russell said: "I am glad the Senate is going to have an opportunity to

House OKs $3 Billion Foreign Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower seemed likely today to get a foreign aid authorization bill more to his liking than the $3,116,833,000 measure passed by the House.

The House passed Eisenhower's bill Friday night with $747½ million dollars cut from the President's original request. And it knocked out just about all of the bill's long-term aid features which marked a new approach to overseas assistance program this year.

Final House passage by a 254-154 rollcall vote climaxed a day-long series of votes which found the bill's supporters on the defensive most of the time.

Stated For Adjustment
The measure now is slated for adjustment with a Senate-passed bill closer to the President's request. The Senate authorized a half billion dollars more than the House and approved some of the long-range authority Eisenhower wanted.

Since the usual practice is to compromise somewhere between the extremes of differing House and Senate bills, the conferees are expected to come up with a measure

Fund Needs Are Up $55,047

City Council Adopts $392,989 '58 Budget

A 1958 city budget of $392,989, some $55,047 more than this year's budget was adopted by City Council at a special meeting Friday night.

The budget sets up $304,029 for the general fund. However, the anticipated revenue for the fund is only $272,440.

Finance Committee Chairman a Fred Koenreich said the budget was based on 1956 expenditures and the anticipated raise in hourly rates for city workers.

The budget has $34,697.58 earmarked for bond retirement. Last year it was $36,293.

A total of $33,800 will go for city parks operation compared to the figure of $27,756 in the 1957 budget.

Some $10,231.70 will go toward each of the police and firemen's pension fund. Last year $15,689 was set aside for the firemen and $10,637.56 for policemen's pensions.

Aside from the general fund budget, figures for the water and sewer funds are $189,328 and $110,231, respectively.

The 1957 water fund estimate is $189,263 while the sewer fund needs are $110,049.

In other action at council's special meeting, three ordinances were passed under a suspension of rules. They were: one, to proceed with improvement of Highland Ave. north from the existing pavement to the south line of E. 10th St.; two to proceed with the improvement of Highland Ave. between the north line of E. 10th St. and the south line of E. 11th St. and three, to transfer $1,000 from the new equipment fund to the traffic signs fund.

Dozen Patrol, Sheriff's Cars Search District

Pair Killed Farmer In Holmes County; Beat Wife, Child

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Police are still searching for two suspects in the brutal robbery - slaying of a young Amish farmer in Holmes County.

Law enforcement officers failed to turn up any trace of the two suspects in searches Friday near Millersburg and later near Alliance.

Police Used Bloodhounds
A score of policemen used bloodhounds in an unsuccessful attempt to trap the men in a wooded area near the slaying scene on Ohio 241. They were believed to have

County Deputies, Patrolmen In Search

Deputies who participated in the hunt until about 6:30 p.m. were James Miller, Robert Berresford and Howard Gray.

filed the Millersburg area in a green, 1953 Pontiac stolen from nearby Frederickburg, according to Holmes County Sheriff Harry Weiss.

Reports that the car was seen 90 miles away on Ohio 80 south of Alliance brought a dozen Ohio Highway Patrol and Stark County sheriff's patrol cars out for an unsuccessful search. Another woman reported seeing two tall young men in the same area. After an hour-long search, which turned up nothing, police abandoned the hunt.

The men are wanted in connection with the killing of Paul M. (Blentz) 25, who was shot twice during a robbery of his basement living quarters in an unfinished home near Mount Hope Thursday night.

Neither Seriously Hurt
His 25-year-old wife and 1½ year old daughter were beaten but neither was seriously injured.

The bandits escaped with only four dollars.

Mrs. Coblenz told deputies that her husband left the house to investigate after the dogs started barking. He was ushered back into his home by two men, one of whom carried a rifle.

Both of the men had been drinking. Mrs. Coblenz said, She described one as slightly over six feet tall, slim, wearing dark clothes and a cap similar to those worn by police officers. The other was about 5 foot 7, wore dark trousers and a white T-shirt with a hunting license pinned to it.

When they demanded money, Mrs. Coblenz told Sheriff Weiss, her husband gave them nine dollars. They shot the young farmer in "cold blood," Mrs. Coblenz continued, and then tried to rape her and struck her baby. Five of the nine dollars was dropped by the thieves as they left the house.

Stolen Truck Found
A stolen truck found in a ditch near the Coblenz home led the sheriff to believe that the two men had used the truck and went to the home following an accident. Patrolmen at a nearby bar reported seeing two men who fit the description of Coblenz' assailants drinking at the tavern earlier in the evening.

The Coblenz live in an Amish settlement about 3½ miles west of Mount Hope in Holmes County. The Amish are a religious group who practice non-violence and reject much of the modern world including automobiles and telephones.

ARRESTED BY PATROL
Emil Spack, 23, of Parma, is being held in county jail at Lisbon today after he was apprehended at 11:14 p.m. Friday on Rt. 62 just east of Damascus for driving a car reported stolen in Cleveland, the state patrol reported today.

Bible Words for Today

PROVERBS 14:34 — "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." (King James Version)

A young Baptist minister, Samuel Francis Smith, wrote the words of "America" while he was a theological student at Andover in February, 1832. In the last stanza is a prayer for our nation:

Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

Benjamin Franklin had this same feeling in the dark days of war when he offered a motion that the sessions of the Continental Congress be opened with prayer. Washington prayed at Valley Forge, Lincoln sought Divine guidance, and Wilson followed the leading of the Lord.

If our country is to endure, there must be a revival of righteousness, justice, prayer, faith, and worship to displace the growing tide of greed, envy, lust, hatred, and prejudice. Organized minorities and pressure groups must place the welfare of the whole nation above their selfish interest. The principles of Jesus must be given first place in our relationships with others both in our own land and throughout the world. The true value of human personality must be appreciated. This is the day of opportunity for our nation.

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Don't Let Little Things Bother You

Last summer for several weeks I stayed at the same hotel in Switzerland as Chief Justice Earl Warren of the United States Supreme Court. I found him a delightfully gracious and interesting man.

That part of Switzerland is one of the most beautiful summer places in the world, but, unfortunately, we were there in a very rainy season. As you know, there is just nothing you can do about rain when you're on vacation but accept it in good spirit. When it rains, it rains; and when it's foggy, it's foggy, and you just have to make the best of it, or ruin your holiday. We had lots of both rain and fog on this particular occasion.

Peale

One evening I was standing outside on the porch chatting with the Chief Justice. "I wonder how the weather is going to be tomorrow," I mused.

"Whatever the Lord gives us tomorrow, I'm going to settle for," he answered.

"I WILL TOO," I told him, "but there are a lot of other people around here complaining about this rain."

"Yes," he said. "I've heard them, too. But just listen to that rain, will you? Did you ever hear a more musical note than that?" I listened as it fell gently on the roof. "It does sound musical," I agreed.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Asian Flu Spreads

Public health officials and virus scientists are working furiously to try to develop some defense against the influenza epidemic now sweeping parts of Asia. It is a complicated task.

Public health officials in Washington have great hope for a new serum developed at Walter Reed Army Medical Center there. But it is a preventive, not a cure.

Whether this current outbreak of influenza will develop into another worldwide epidemic such as occurred in 1917-18 is still uncertain. So far — as is characteristic of the severe influenza epidemics of the past — this has started out as a relatively mild disease. While it has attacked vast numbers of people, comparatively few have died from it.

However, when similar epidemics of the past have spread they have also become more dangerous. In 1917-18, for example, flu and its complications killed more people in the United States than we lost by combat in World War I.

We have had a good deal of flu since that great disaster, but not yet on the same scale. Indeed it is uncertain why these great worldwide epidemics appear and what makes them different from the influenza existing in between.

Nevertheless, much more is known about flu than was known

40 years ago. At that time it was not even known that it was caused by a virus.

Now we know that there are three main kinds of virus involved — A, B and C.

However, there are also strains within these main types so that it has proved extremely difficult to develop an effective vaccine which would prevent attack by all flu-causing viruses.

It seems that the present Asian flu is caused by Type A virus. At least three strains have been isolated from victims of the disease.

Of course, it is possible that the virus will die out by itself, since this happens without apparent reason from time to time. It is more probable that it will gather strength and cause more severe illness and a higher proportion of deaths unless some effective vaccination can be developed.

If this flu should suddenly strike us, it will doubtless hit the young and healthy as well as others. Usually it is associated with high fever. Immediate rest in bed until the symptoms have gone is the best procedure.

In previous pandemics, those who followed this policy were more likely to recover completely than those who tried to keep going or got out of bed too soon.

ONE IDEA OF GOD

At the entrance to the valley where they buried their kings an ancient and industrious people carved the Sphinx.

This was their idea of God: the body of a lion, suggesting power . . . the face of a man, suggesting personality . . . the whole amazing image suggesting their belief in a MIGHTY deity who could be KNOWN.

Today, in our churches, we worship God as Jesus Christ revealed Him: almighty but merciful . . . knowing and eager to be known . . . loving man and seeking man's love . . . saving all who believe in their Saviour—His Son!

Can the ancient Sphinx have any significance for men and women like ourselves who have before us the Gospel and example of Christ?

Only this: As long as it remains, the awesome Sphinx will remind us of man's search for God. Just as our own church bells remind us of our opportunity to know, love, and serve Him!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Sweet Bye And Bye

Finally, after interminable delay, there is a day when everybody can agree that summer has settled in with a vengeance. It has come!

The crosswalks are pliant in the sun's melting rays. There is a shimmer of heat rising from the highways. Even the most proper males shed their coats. Well adjusted dogs hole up under densely-leaved bushes.

All the air-conditioners are buzzing on top throttle. The pop cooler is cleaned out by mid-day. Water pressure drops as the sprinkling season gets under way. Junior seeks permission to sleep in the yard in his tent, and Senior wonders if he tent is big enough to accommodate two.

It is the good old summertime—the kind people sing about in the song of the same name.

And every time it happens again the same thought repeats itself in the minds of millions who think thoughts of a subversive nature.

If the good old summertime lasted long enough, it would ruin civilization as it has evolved in this climate. The most progressive place in the world would go to seed like everything else in nature when the harvest moon shines.

There would be no more great plans, no great dreams, no great actions. Everything would be trimmed down to the lethargy which overtakes humans in hot climates.

Perhaps it may be done this way deliberately in the sweet bye and bye whenever summer settles in. Work and worry may be suspended officially until further notice. Until then, though, summer is double trouble—your own and the other fellow's. He is away on vacation, doing what everybody should be doing when the crosswalks become pliant — conserving his energy.

Trouble-Shooters

If you are a typical American — and of course you are — you have firm ideas about how things should be done in this country. The trouble is, no one will listen to you.

They do not consider you to be qualified to talk unless you are a big shot. And if you are a big shot, they consider you to be prejudiced in favor of your special interests.

The Committee for Economic Development, a private nonprofit organization whose systematic pursuit of knowledge has opened a new source of economic information, has decided to do something about this.

It will give 50 prizes of $500 each for the authors of the best competitive papers on the most important economic problem to be faced by the United States in the next 20 years. In addition it will give 50 awards of $500 each to 50 big shots for their views on the same subject. Neither the competition nor the awards will be limited to Americans. Trouble-shooters anywhere in the world will have a chance to speak their pieces.

There is, of course, one catch in this, if you haven't spotted it by this time. CED wants to hear about to most important problems looming ahead—one only. If you are a typical American, you are going to have trouble narrowing things down to one problem. You have dozens of them to worry about.

Military Opportunity

The Defense Department says manpower needs can be trimmed 100,000 from the 2,800,000 authorized strength of the armed forces.

The Department of the Army says future draft calls can be cut accordingly. It will announce later how large the cuts will be. The Army's share of the total cutback of 100,000 is 44,470.

But the most important thing that has been said is the Cordiner Report, which says that the draft could be eliminated entirely with no manpower cutbacks simply by setting up a rating and paying system to hold key military personnel in key posts.

The Cordiner Report, prepared on an executive order from the White House, looks forward to a time when national defense could be made better than it is now at upward of five billion dollars in annual savings by paying military personnel for what they are able to do, instead of for service stripes.

It is the most exciting official policy to be propounded during the war and postwar years when a generation of young Americans now almost ready for draft calls were growing up with no knowledge of what it would be like to think of military service as an attractive career instead of a patriotic duty to be performed at heavy personal cost.

One of those $100-a-plate dinners we read about would open our mouth so wide we wouldn't be able to chew.

A Michigan judge fined a man fifty dollars for striking his wife. He didn't know that you can't beat a good wife.

Some people jot down their ideas on a cuff, maybe so they'll always have something up their sleeve.

Religion At Work

By EUGENE CARR

How Much Does It Cost?

We are living today in an economy that is both popular and contradictory. We think and talk and deal in sums which only a few years ago we did not dare contemplate. At the same time, there probably never was a period in our history when we were less conscious of values.

Apparently we like this situation. We like incomes that have doubled and tripled in the last 10 years.

We like the idea that the price on something we own is twice what it was only a short time ago. We look with pride on our sons' starting to work at salaries Dad did not earn until he was 45.

We are riding a crest of purchasing power that places every material convenience, comfort and pleasure in the average home, and, generally speaking, that is good.

BUT, AS SOMEONE said recently, we know the exact price of everything and the true value of nothing. The emphasis is on "how much does it cost?" not "how much is it worth?"

The value of what we buy has become less important to us because we have more. The main question is, "can we pay for it?" rather than "what is it worth?"

This may be human nature at work, but if so, it is one of human nature's contradictions. For, if we were consistent, we would be more conscious of values as we gained in material goods. The price we would pay would be determined by the quality of what we wanted, not how much we could afford.

If nothing of real value were to be added to our lives, the purchase would be worth nothing. If the value were basic, essential to true happiness and genuine well-being, it would be worth everything we had.

WHEN WE LOOK at the things for which we exchange our time and energy and skill these days, our religious faith is the only thing left which maintains its place in our lives on the basis of what it is worth rather than what it costs. Everything else is inflated beyond a sense of value. But a faith in God retains its basic worth with no thought of cost.

What is this basic worth? Confidence in the power and influence of God in our lives; hope in a Divine Direction beyond the reach of earthly forces; courage that overrides the fears of human weakness; security under the unfailing benevolence of the common Father over all.

What does it cost? Time each day for worship and prayer; thoughtful words and deeds for others; impersonal and unselfish living; total commitment to God's will.

When we pay this price we give up nothing of real worth to ourselves. In return, we receive the greatest value known to mankind.

All Things To All Men

By RAYMOND MOLEY

At the moment it seems that the battle of the budget has been won. Not by the President, not by Democrats in Congress, but by the forgotten and despised taxpayer.

I say "seems," for we shall not know for a year whether the cut of 2 billion dollars ordered by the President will actually be made. There have been threats and commands to the bureaucrats before on this subject which have been ignored.

But before we leave the subject, it may be well to offer a comment on one of the major arguments of the administration for the amount of spending asked for in January—the argument that the Republican platform of 1956 pledged the administration and the Republican party to the items in the budget.

Just what sort of moral obligation can a political platform impose upon a party? Or, to put it in philosophical terms, can a document immoral in itself create a moral obligation in anyone?

THIS DOCUMENT like all such, was written by a group of harassed delegates, hounded on all sides by cranks and special interests and intent on seeing that nothing was omitted that might snare a vote.

Normally, a platform is an amalgam of perspiration and inspiration. Inclusion in the order of the day, and hence the inordinant length of the document. Compromise is its nature, persuasion its purpose, noncommittal its import, and vague its promises.

A perfect platform says all things to all men.

Ordinarily, professional politicians say as little as possible about a platform after the election. But except for the nice president, this is not an administration of professionals. Most of them are naive people who actually believe that a platform is taken seriously.

Signs of Surplus

The years since World War II have witnessed an unbelievable expansion of America's industrial plant, which already had proved itself in war as the world's greatest.

Now the question is being asked in some places whether perhaps the country may not be, temporarily at least, a little ahead of the game.

In one of its special reports, U.S. News & World Report points out that after pouring 61 billion dollars into plant expansion and improvement in the past five years our industry has begun to show a good deal of surplus capacity.

For example, the steel mills we have today can produce about 133 million tons of steel a year but the nation has never used more than 117 million tons in any year so far.

If the automobile manufacturers pushed their schedules to the limit, they could roll out more than 11 million cars, trucks and buses in a year. But they never have and now their operations are far below that pace.

The magazine's survey found some evidence of developing surpluses in such fields as cement, aluminum and paper, where shortages have been a plague most of the time since World War II. In the complex and varied chemical industry, numerous surpluses are reported. The oil companies are trying to hold output down to levels well below capacity.

Producers are not meeting the situation by flooding the market with goods at lowered prices. Their material and labor costs are too high. This factor rather than heavy demand seems to account for much

A generation of students in school and college have been amused by their teachers' exposure of the inconsistencies and banalities of political jargon.

A POLITICAL platform, says a standard political witicism, is like a platform on a railroad car—something to get in on, not to stand on.

This 1956 affair was neither better nor worse than the average; perhaps duller than many and less vitriolic than some. But it yields to none in inconsistency.

It would put into effect the Hoover and Kestbaum commission recommendations.

It would reduce spending, balance the budget, cut the national debt, and so far as consistent with the balanced budget—lessen the burden of taxation.

It also would help small businesses, accelerate the vast highway program, build schools all over the country, replace the war-built merchant fleet with modern types, provide all sorts of benefits to farmers, pour money into dams and irrigation, and give economic aid for "the underdeveloped areas of the free world."

THE PRESSURE of opinion however, sometimes prevails over the platitudes and promises of politics.

In this case, after months in which we were assured that the original budget represented the indispensable minimum for fiscal 1958, we are now told that 2 billion dollars can be saved.

And now it is the turn of the Democrats to manifest the infinite capacity of politicians to be inconsistent.

Their outcry is that this Eisenhower command to reduce spending is rank treachery.

It takes away their one issue, and that is that, for a few months at least, they were to be the party of economy.

Another Theory Gone Wrong

Who Gets What In Civil Rights?

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is an almost topsy-turvy air about the Senate fight over the civil rights bill which President Eisenhower's administration backed.

And like offstage music one question hovers over all that's being done: who gets what out of this—Negroes, the Republicans, the Democrats?

The administration put the heat on House Republicans last June to pass this bill intact, as the administration wanted it. They got behind it in big numbers.

The Republicans are conscious of the growing importance of Negro votes in the North. With passage of this bill, they could expect a show of political gratitude from Northern Negroes in the next elections.

And if the bill, as passed, had any real teeth in it and enabled more Southern Negroes to vote, the Republicans could expect benefits there, too.

The degree of Negro gratitude, however, may be in direct relation to (1) whether the bill passes and (2) whether it has teeth.

No matter what happens the Republicans can claim that Eisenhower and Sen. Knowland of California, Republican Senate leader, led the fight for it.

But when the House-passed bill got over to the Senate, and Southern Democrats began their real fight against it, Knowland felt pressure to weaken it. Together with Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), he proposed a softening amendment.

And Knowland has further changes in mind, although the House went down the line to pass almost exactly the kind of bill the administration asked.

But there is a complicated situation in the Senate.

There the Republicans can hardly be called all Eisenhower Republicans. But because of the circumstances—a bill backed by Eisenhower and Knowland — those who follow Eisenhower will back some kind of bill, and so will those who like Knowland.

The Democrats, North and South, have their own problem: with Southerners against it and some, if not all, Northerners for it, the Democrats have the task of preserving some kind of party unity.

Behind the scenes Sen. Lyndon

Johnson of Texas, Senate leader of the Democrats, is working to produce a compromise which Northern and Southern Democrats, and perhaps Republicans, can accept.

Johnson, whose Democrats have a majority in the Senate, is in the strange position of watching Knowland, leader of the Republican minority, put up the fight for civil rights which the Democrats had always promised.

And if the Southerners want no part of compromise, even for party unity, they face the possibility of defeat by a coalition of Republicans and Northern Democrats.

They want the whole bill killed. But this time they may figure it a victory if they can wind up with a bill that is much toned down from the kind Eisenhower requested. A weak bill would be better from their viewpoint than a tough one.

Northern Democrats who help get some kind of civil rights bill can claim some credit among Northern Negroes for their part in it.

Yet, because of the Southern opposition, Democrats as a party can hardly claim much when it was the Republicans who led the fight.

Even a watered-down bill would be a victory for the Negroes—not as much as they hoped for, but still a victory. It would be the first time in this century that a civil rights bill passed the Senate.

Hitherto, Southern Democrats have always been able to block it. Even a weakened civil rights bill, if it helped more Negroes vote, would be an encouragement to them next year to put pressure on Republicans and Northern Democrats to pass a stiffer one, once the Southern wall had been broken.

Planning For Oil

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The oil industry is looking for 115 billion dollars. That is what oilmen estimate it will cost to find and develop enough new oil sources to supply the increasing demands of the economy of the non-Communist world in the next 10 years.

The industry expects some of the increased oil supply to come from exploration and discoveries, and some from continuing research into improving the recovery of oil from known sources. At present oilmen count as obtainable reserves only 40 per cent of the oil in known fields.

This long-range planning is going on despite today's chief immediate problem: Over supply and an unexpected lag in domestic demand.

Both world and U.S. demand continues to grow each year—in Western Europe much faster than here. But at the start of 1957 most oilmen were predicting that domestic demand would increase by 5 per cent this year. At the half way point the increase has been only 1.4 per cent.

Oilmen are most surprised by the failure of demand for gasoline to spurt as usual with the end of school and the start of the vacation rush. On the contrary, gasoline stocks have been climbing, and in widely scattered spots in the nation there are flourishing gas price wars.

Domestic demand for crude oil — from which come some 2,000 other end products besides gasoline — is currently running between eight and nine million barrels a day.

Economists at the Chase Manhattan Bank who keep a sharp eye on the oil industry now estimate that by 1957 domestic demand will have risen to more than 14 1/2 million barrels a day, and demand in the rest of the non-Communist world will be almost as high.

The bank's economists expect the U.S. sources will be supplying 11 million barrels a day and foreign sources 17 million a day. It will cost, industry men estimate, 115 billion dollars to finance that big expansion.

American oilmen are confident they will be able to produce the vast new amount of oil they foresee the world demanding. The upcoming American Petroleum Institute's quarterly review will point out that for years oilmen have been finding more oil each year than we consumed. They added 17 billion barrels of proven reserves between 1925 and 1935, and 21 billion between 1935 and 1945 and 31 billion barrels in the next 10 years.

One Person In 37,000

By WILLIAM RAPP

NEW YORK (AP)—One American in every 37,000 is 100 years of age or older. Having reached the century mark, every one of these 4,500 men and women is an expert on how to achieve longevity.

Among them are the aged Indian woman who survived a massacre in Oregon a century ago but who couldn't live another day without her prized cheroot, and Perry Duskin of Cincinnati, a 100-year-old ex-slave who feels he's lived so long because "I'm obedient, loving and kind—and I mind my own business."

This philosophy doesn't find favor with Javier Pereira, a Colombian Indian brought to the United States last fall to be studied by scientists interested in finding out how he has lived to the reputed age of 168.

Physicians at New York Hospital agree that "possibly he may be more than 150 years old," and feel his condition might be attributed to the fat-free diet of his people. But, they also noted, he enjoys cigars, rum and coffee—none of them too popular with the medics these days.

Temperance is preached by everyone's Great-Aunt Mae. She's approaching 90 and is a good bet to become a centenarian if she doesn't find out that the prescription for her circulatory difficulties is laced with medicinal alcohol.

But George Moltz, 100, of Kamiah, Idaho, who remembers fighting "Injuns" and punching cattle along the old Chisholm Trail from Texas to Montana still goes to town every once in a while to "have a few beers and flirt with the girls."

Mrs. Anna Viana, a centenarian of New York, likes her morning vermouth and egg, while Mrs. Johanna Pilar, a native of Vienna now living in Newark, swears by her daily bottle of beer.

Rules For Cocktail Parties

Aware of the dangers of the summer cocktail party, now getting into full swing, and the widely felt need to create a convivial mood without perpetuating it into a nonstop performance, we launch the Three-and-Scream Cocktail Club under the following rules:

1. The host or hostess, in the interest of order, decorum and protection against twice-told tales, shall expect guests to scam after the third round.

2. It shall be out of order for any guest to hint at or propose a fourth round.

3. Any guests showing hesitancy to consider the party over after the third cocktail, or manifesting a determination to linger longer by an unfair use of personality or the subterfuge of "Have you heard this one?" shall be black-listed and his name sent to all neighboring party throwers for posting.

4. It shall be proper to lower the boom on any guest prolonging things by such remarks as "Wanna hear me imitate two Hawaiians?" — "Did you see that cartoon in Life?" — "I get it from a reliable source that he left her because . . ." and "What do you think of the Algerian crisis?"

5. In case where a party gets out of control and the guests lost their regard for the Three-and-Scream club charter the host or hostess shall be permitted to sound the "Curtain going down" gong or "So you gotta be reminded" bell.

6. The employment of two trained dogs to fetch hats and coats of guests shall be permissible.

7. The distribution of mirrors to establish the presence of two dogs shall not be prohibited.

8. These rules are calculated to bust up parties before anybody gets too bored; to advancing better relationships without promoting loose conduct; to limit the one about the farmer's daughter and the salesman to one recital; to prevent hospitality being overlapped by the New Orleans carnival spirit, and to developing more general respect for the old saying, "It is better to break it up a little early than to realize too late that you haven't had any dinner."

YOU DON'T SUPPOSE, do you, that Prince Karim called his daddy, Aly Khan, and asked "What's new, Popper?" . . .

New York City has suffered a population loss of 120,448 people a special census reveals . . . But we don't believe it. . . . WE are sure they can easily be accounted for (1) having been too nervous to answer a doorbell; (2) they were up on the roof for a little air; (3) they were answering traffic summonses; (4) they were all in Broadway jewelry auction rooms. . . . And it all seems to us that many times 120,448 New Yorkers are always lost in traffic jams just outside the city limits, census or not.

THE NEWSPAPER GUILD asks $200 a week for reporters and $100 minimum for beginners. . . . Everybody is seeking more money these days, so we offer no criticism, but we can't help recalling our early days in the newspaper game when the star reporter got $30 and when a "cub" never got added to the staff for more than $3 per week.

The latter was our pay when we joined the Register back home as a green kid, and we still treasure a letter from Clare Thompson, the managing editor which read, "I am glad to notify you that you are being given, without solicitation, an increase to $5 per week."

In our newspaper career we got many salary jumps and plenty of big ones, but none gave us the kick of that original one from $3 to $5. The hours were eight to four, six days a week and from 7 p.m. Saturday night to 2 a.m. Sunday mornings. . . . Two weeks off each summer were compulsory, with only one week on pay. . . . But we had a grand time and wouldn't have missed it for anything.

It was a Bohemian era when no other business, outside of banking, had eight to four hours to a working day, when it was a happy-go-lucky existence and when there were so many banquets, clambakes and picnics to cover that a dollar was not only worth 100 cents but could be stretched by frugality and right assignments to 300 and even 400.

Class AA All-Stars Beat Hendron's 4-2 In Late Frames

Industrial Stars Rip Marvels

Three More Games Scheduled Tonight

By MARK MILLER

The Class AA All-Stars held back until the last innings and then came on to defeat Hendron's 4-2, and the Industrial All-Stars routed the Deming Marvels 13-6 in the annual All-Star games played at Kelley Park Friday evening.

The Industrial All-Stars started things moving in the first frame, getting a quick jump on their opponents with a three-run outburst. Allison walked, Dickey walked and Crookston struck out.

Allison stole home, Odorizzi walked, and Dickey moved to third on a passed ball. W. Miller then hit a sacrifice fly to left, scoring Dickey. Callatone walked, and Galbreath singled in Odorizzi, but Callatone was out in a run down between third and home.

THE ALL-STARS added four more markers in the second. Rorer struck out, Fife walked, and Allison doubled to put runners on first and second.

Dickey walked to load the bases, and Crookston grounded to the third baseman who threw to home plate forcing Fife. Crookston reached first on the fielders choice and the bases remained loaded.

Odorizzi then smashed a grand slam home run over the left field fence. W. Miller walked, but was out trying to steal second.

The winners added another tally in the fourth when Allison reached first on an error, stole second, went to third on an error, and then raced home on a passed ball.

IN THE FOURTH frame the Marvels fought back. B. Zoccolo walked, DiAntonio popped to third, and Hahn was hit by a pitch.

A. Zoccolo reached on a fielder's choice and Rogowsky singled, scoring B. Zoccolo and Hahn. On an error, A. Zoccolo scored.

John Guiler then replaced Don Fife on the mound for the All-Stars. Barry struck out, Lake singled, scoring Rogowsky, and Rayniak flew out to center to end the inning.

In the sixth the Stars added another run. Odorizzi walked, and W. Miller tripled, scoring Odorizzi. Callatone popped to first, Peterson struck out, and Rorer grounded out to third to first.

The Marvels tallied their final marker in the eighth. DiAntonio walked, and Hahn flew out to left. A. Zoccolo singled and DiAntonio was safe at third when the third baseman dropped the ball. Rogowsky then hit a fly to right and DiAntonio scored. Barry then popped to second.

THE FINAL SCORING was done in the ninth inning. Callatone singled, and Peterson popped to first. Rorer sacrificed Callatone to second and was safe when the first baseman dropped the ball, Callatone moving to third.

H. Miller doubled, scoring Callatone and Rorer. Dickey then singled, bringing in Miller to complete the scoring.

Satch Altomare and Dave Ehrhart pitched good ball for the Hendrons team, claiming to a 2-2 tie until the top of the ninth.

Hendron's scored first in the fourth frame. Hahn grounded out short stop to first, Barnes doubled to center, and Boughton grounded out to second to first, Barnes taking third. Baisley walked, Cibula singled, scoring Barnes, and on the overthrown from center field into the stands, Baisley scored and Cibula took third. Wyss grounded out first unassisted.

THE ALL-STARS tied the score in the seventh. Moore singled to deep short, and Roelen was called out on strikes. Hadiet grounded to second, who threw to the short stop forcing Moore at second base, Hadiet reaching first on the fielder's choice.

Beard beat out a slow roller to the third baseman for a single, Hadiet advancing to third. Beard stole second, Cobbs doubled to center, scoring Hadiet and Beard, and Vizzuso popped to the short stop.

In the top of the ninth, the All-Stars wrapped up the game. Moore singled, and reached second on an error, Roelen sacrificed, pitcher to first, moving Moore to third. Hadiet tripled to left center, scoring Moore.

Beard hit a ground rule double to left center, scoring Hadiet. Cobbs flied out to center field and Beard was caught off second base for a double play.

Record Fleet Set For 333-Mile Race

CHICAGO (AP) — The 50th Chicago to Mackinac race gets underway today with a record fleet of 79 yachts all set for the 333-mile race over the full length of Lake Michigan.

Heading the list of entries are defending champions Copperhead and Fleetwood.

The previous record of entries was 66 last year when Copperhead, owned by Charles Kotovic of Milwaukee, won first division honors. This division includes Class A and B boats—the larger ones in competition.

Fleetwood, winner in the small-er boat classes, is presently owned by Horace C. Ford of Detroit. Fleetwood last year sailed for Nick Gib of Chicago and has dominated the lower classes for the past eight years.

The 1957 field includes entries from 16 clubs throughout Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio. Detroit has 11 contenders including Revclry, Class B winner in the Port Huron-Mackinac race last week.

The Class A winner in that race, Dyna, owned by Clayton Ewing, Sturgeon Bay, Wis., is entered in the Chicago-Mackinac run.

HODGE IS HONORED

BROOKLYN (AP)—Gil Hodges, the Brooklyn Dodgers' popular first baseman, picked up a new car, dozens of assorted gifts and his 1,000th career run-batted-in Friday night at Ebbets Field.

The 33-year-old veteran, now in his 12th season, had only two hits in nine trips, with a single in each game of a two-night doubleheader against Chicago. But he scored the winning run in the first game, won 6-3 in 10 innings, and drove home the first run of the nightcap, won 5-3, as the Dodgers swept a twinbill for the first time this season.

RICHMOND BEATS JETS COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus is in the International League basement again today. The Jets lost to Richmond Friday night, 5-2.

Tigers Defeat Senators

Braves Beat Giants; Dodgers Score Double Win Over Cubs

By The Associated Press

The favored "big three"—Milwaukee, Brooklyn and Cincinnati—are on the move and this could be the beginning of the end for the pretenders among the contenders in the hot National League pennant chase.

Milwaukee's first-place Braves, crippled and bandaged, have found ways to win even without hitting Hank Aaron and slugging Joe Adcock. Brooklyn's defending champs have become the hottest team in the league, with Duke Snider back, jumping from fifth to second.

And Cincinnati has quit fifth to move within one percentage point of third-place St. Louis.

The Philadelphia Phillies, meanwhile have collapsed with four defeats in a row and now are fifth again. St. Louis' Cardinals have blown a three-game lead and now are third, two games behind.

The Braves made it four in a row Friday night, beating the New York Giants 3-1 as old-timer Andy Pafo smashed two home runs and cracked open a tie ball game with a two-run belt in the ninth.

Brooklyn moved up by beating Chicago's last place Cubs twice, 6-3 in 10 innings and 5-3 for the Dodgers' first doubleheader sweep of the season, Pittsburgh routed St. Louis and the Cards' young sensation, Von McDaniel, 7-0. Cincinnati clobbered the Phils and 12-game winner Jack Sanford 7-2.

The American League race, already draped with crepe, showed the New York Yankees with a six-game bulge after whipping Cleveland 9-1 as Boston disposed of the second-place Chicago White Sox 5-2. Detroit defeated Washington 4-1 and Baltimore beat Kansas City 4-2.

Gene Conley won his third in a row with a seven-hitter as the Braves finally beat ex-mate Johnny Antonelli. The southpaw had blanked the Braves on three singles after Pafo's second-inning home run until Andy parked one following a walk in the ninth. Conley is 3-4; Antonelli 9-8.

The Braves are 7-3 since the All-Star game, the Dodgers are 8-1. Duke Snider homered in both games for the Brooks for seven in nine games. His 22nd tied the opener 3-1 in the 10th before rookie John Roseboro bagged it with a three-run homer. Reliever Clem Labine won it for a 4-5 record after losing five in a row. The Cubs had only four hits in the opener, but three were homers—two by Lee Walls.

A pinch single by Randy Jackson broke a 3-all tie in the nightcap sixth, giving Sal Maglie a 4-2 record.

Pittsburgh swung for nine hits off McDaniel, whose hit second in a row for a 4-2 record, as 8-1.

Cards lost their seventh in the last nine. Vern Law walked none and scattered nine singles for his sixth victory. Ex-Card Bill Virdon had three hits.

Sanford, who has lost three, two to the Redlegs, was smacked for 11 of 15 Cincinnati hits—all singles except for George Crowe's 21st home run with a man on. Joe Nuxhall won his fourth.

A bases loaded balk by Don

Mossi helped the Yankees to a 2-0 lead in the first inning, and they really put it away in a five-run seventh as Bill Skowron hit a three-run homer. White Ford had a three-hit shutout for six innings, then gave up Gene Woodling's home run and left with a recurrence of his shoulder troubles.

Ted Lepcio, replacing the injured Billy Klaus, whacked a three-run homer and Ted Williams hit his 27th as the Red Sox beat Billy Pierce, now 13-7. Willard Nixon won it, with relief help.

Paul Foytack won his 10th, one more than he's lost, with relief help after the Tigers tagged Pete Ramos for all their runs in four innings. Frank House homered for Detroit.

Billy Loes won his 10th with a seven-hitter for Baltimore, losing a shutout on Vic Powers' double in the seventh. Woody Held homered for the other A's run in the ninth.

CONFAB ON GIANTS' MOVE

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor George Christopher was due here today to confer with New York Giants' owner Horace Stoneham, presumably to iron out some details in the Giants' projected move to San Francisco.

Christopher said he was not coming here specifically to talk to Stoneham, but rather he was on his way to a convention at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

However, he added, "it would be rude" if he failed to talk to Stoneham while he was here.

STAN HAS 2,896 HITS PITTSBURGH (AP) — Stan (The Man) Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals now is fourth in the all-time National League list with a total of 2,896 hits after going 1-for-4 in last night's 7-0 loss to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

World Mile Mark Broken

Salesman Clocked At 3:57.2 In London

LONDON (AP)—A laughing Yorkshire lad who runs for the joy of it has set the athletic world wondering today just how fast a man can run a mile.

Derek Ibbotson of Britain, a 24-year-old paint salesman, Friday night shattered John Landy's 1954 world mark of 3:58 with a majestic 3:57.2 clocking at the White City Stadium.

He won what must be regarded as the greatest mile race ever run. The first four finishers bettered four minutes and the fifth man was timed in 4:00.6. It marked the 15th time that the 4-minute mark has been broken.

Ron Delany of Ireland finished second last night. The Czech 1,500-meter world record breaker, Stanislav Jungwirth, finished third in 3:59.1. Ken Wood of Britain came home fourth in 3:59.3. Poland's Stefan Lewandowski was fifth in 4:00.6.

In Stockholm Friday night, Dan Waern of Sweden ran the classic distance in 3:59.3 and said he felt he could do better.

Ibbotson finished roaring home 10 or so yards ahead of Delany. Ibbotson's last quarter was run in about 57 seconds.

What made the race slightly wild in tactics was the presence of a small British runner named Michael Blagrove. This miler carried the field through the first quarter in an unbelievable 55.3 seconds and the half mile in an incredible 1:55.8.

The field wasn't even stretched out at the half mile. But the scorching early pace forced a slow third quarter. Jungwirth reached the start of the final lap in 3 minutes flat.

Ibbotson said he believed he might have done 3:55 if it hadn't been for the hot early pace. Ibbotson waited for the last 300 yards to make his move. He accelerated and left the front runner, Jungwirth, a sitting duck for Delany to pass.

In Melbourne, Australia, Landy said, "Gee, that's great, but it should have happened a long time ago," when he heard that Ibbotson had broken his record.

"But," Landy added, "this new record will be broken many times this summer in Europe. And I think Merv Lincoln and Herb Elliott should get inside it once the Australian season gets underway."

"I'll never run in competition again," Landy added. "Now I just run a couple of times a week to keep in trim."

Alhambra Favorite In Arlington Race

CHICAGO (AP) — Fred W. Hooper's Alhambra, aiming for the 2-year-old championship is a solid favorite today to win the $75,000 added Arlington Futurity at Arlington Park.

Coupled with Olymar, Alhambra will have Eddie Arcaro in the saddle in quest of his fourth triumph without defeat.

The Hooper entry is expected to go off at even money in the 10-horse race at six furlongs. If all 10 start, the event will gross $150,075 with a winner's net of $104,875 to all except to supplemental nominees.

Alhambra's toughest competition is expected to come from Sir Ruler, a Nasrullah colt who'll have Bill Hartack in the saddle. Other top contenders are Rockmore Farm's Leather Button; T. Allie Grissom's Little Reaper and John D. Hertz's Ruler who will be ridden by veteran Johnny Longden the only jockey in the world to ride 5,000 winners.

Crowe Hits 21st Home Run As Redlegs Shell Phillies

Hamilton Strikes Out 7 In Posting 4th Victory

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Earlier this season, Joe Nuxhall said his slump was due to mechanical trouble: His timing was off. Maybe the once-brilliant southpaw has cured himself.

Whatever the change stems from, the lefthander went all the way for the second time this season, shelling out four scattered hits in the Reds' 7-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies Friday night.

The Hamilton hurler struck out seven Phillies taking his fourth victory in nine decisions.

The game was also George Crowe's chance to shine again, helping hoist the Reds to the National League's fourth place with his 21st homer of the season, a two-run bash that soared over the Philadelphia Phillies Friday night.

The Phillies scored first, but the lead didn't last long. Richie Ashburn collected a walk in the first inning and Chuck Harmon, a Redleg castoff, brought him home with a triple.

But Crowe's homer took the advantage away again and the Reds never relinquished the lead.

Jack Sanford, currently the best hurler in the league, was chased in the fifth inning when the Reds punched out five runs.

That big fifth also proved the undoing of outfielder Chico Fernandez. After Crowe led off with a walk, Smoky Burgess lifted a pop fly into the outfield and Fernandez and Harmon crashed together chasing the ball. Fernandez was carried off the field on a stretcher.

The Reds promptly loaded the bases, when play started again, on Don Hoak's loopy single and scored a run on Roy McMillan's slender single.

A wild pitch allowed Burgess to gallop home and that was the end of the day for Sanford. Seth Morehead took over and fanned the next Redleg, but Johnny Temple rapped a single to centerfield, scoring two men and Gus Bell followed with a duplicate safety to bring Temple in.

Roy Smalley, who took over for Fernandez, blasted a home run in the fifth that ended Philadelphia scoring.

In today's game, second of four scheduled with the Phillies, Hal Jeffcoat was nominated to oppose Jim Hearn on the mound.

Collegians Begin Football Practice

CHICAGO (AP)—A College All-Star football squad much "heavier and faster" than last year's team opened practice at Northwestern University Friday.

The 44 collegians opened practice for their Aug. 9 date against the New York Giants, professional champions, at Soldier Field. "I was not despondent at what I saw," said head coach Curly Lambeau, "although we won't really know until the rough work starts Monday. But the overall picture makes it look like a good squad."

Last year the Stars lost to the Cleveland Browns, 26-0.

Otto Graham the former Cleveland star who is an assistant coach, worked with some of the players. Graham was impressed with the string of quarterbacks which includes Paul Hornung, Notre Dame; Len Dawson, Purdue; and John Brodie, Stanford. Another, Jim Harris of Oklahoma, will report later.

Graham also was complemented. Terry Barr, Michigan half-back, grabbed a few of Graham's featherlike tosses during the workout and cracked:

"He sure can throw. I think he'll make it."

Woodling Scores Only Run

World Championship Form Shown As Yankees Wallop Hapless Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — The New York Yankees displayed world championship form here Friday night as they coasted to a 9-1 decision over the hapless Cleveland Indians.

While the heavy guns of the Yankee batting order shelled the Tribe with 13 hits, pitchers Whitey Ford and Art Ditmar were limiting the Indians to four safeties.

Gene Woodling, who has now hit safely in nine straight games, scored the only Cleveland run with a seventh-inning homer off the foul pole in right field. Rocky Colavito and Bobby Avila singled off Ford and Joe Altobelli collected a pinch-hit single off Ditmar in the eighth.

Don Mossi started and lost for the Indians, his fourth loss in 11 decisions. Bud Daley came on in the seventh and Mike Garcia pitched the ninth.

Jim Hegan, sidelined with a pulled leg muscle since June 16, went behind the plate for the Tribe in the ninth.

The Yankees, led by Bill Skowron's three-run homer in the fifth, had things their own way as they racked up their fifth win in a row. They now lead the league by six games.

Ford was near-perfect until he was forced to leave the game in the seventh because of a sore shoulder. He allowed only three hits, struck out six and walked one for his fifth victory against a single defeat.

The Yankees jumped to an early lead, scoring two runs in the first inning. Elston Howard singled, Gerry Coleman walked and Mickey Mantle singled, scoring Howard.

Skowron was intentionally walked, loading the bases. Coleman came home when Mossi balked. After Hank Bauer was given an intentional pass to load the bases, Bobby Richardson bunted in an attempt to squeeze Mantle home from third.

Mossi fielded the ball in front of the mound and cut down the speeding Mantle at the plate. With bases still loaded, Tony Kubek struck out to end the inning.

After scoring another run in the fourth on a single and a double, the Yankees broke the game wide open with five runs in the seventh.

Howard, with his second double of the game, came home on Coleman's single. Mantle followed with another single and Mossi was replaced by Daley on the mound for the Indians.

Daley's luck was no better than Mossi's. Yogi Berra singled, scoring Coleman, and Skowron rifled a homer over the right field fence, scoring Mantle and Berra ahead of him. The homer gave Skowron the runs-batted-in leadership in the league with 67.

Al Smith set the stage for the final New York tally in the eighth. He fielded Tony Kubek's grounder and threw wild to first, Kubek taking third on the error. Ditmar's single scored Kubek.

Early Wynn will attempt to stop the Yankees in today's game at Municipal Stadium. Little Bobby Shantz, the current pride of the Yankee pitching staff, will be shooting for his 10th win.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By R. L. LIDE

This year will mark a milestone in Ohio squirrel management because the Wildlife Council has set up an earlier season in 32 southern counties where hunting pressure is usually light but gray squirrels are numerous.

With the season opening Sept. 2 and running through Oct. 31 the southern zone hunters can enjoy two months of top sport. Northern Zone squirrel season opens Sept. 16 and runs through Oct. 31. For those who have not hunted in southern Ohio before, one of the public hunting areas will probably be the best bet. Many of these areas have been provided for hunter's use by the Division of Wildlife from hunting license funds.

Some of the larger public hunting areas and their locations are: Shawnee-Roosevelt State Forest—54,000 acres in Scioto and Adams counties; Tar Hollow State Forest—16,000 acres in Ross and Hocking counties; Zaleski State Forest—18,000 acres in Vinton County; Brush Creek Wildlife Area—1,700 acres in Jefferson County; Trimble Wildlife Area—2,000 acres in Athens County and Wayne National Forest—105,000 acres in Jackson, Monroe, Morgan, Perry, Lawrence, Athens, Gallia and Washington counties.

BERLIN LAKE reservoir and Mosquito Reservoir in Trumbull county are two of 15 lakes in the state where outboard motor boats of unlimited horsepower may be used, the Division of Wildlife in Columbus points out.

Of 12 state lakes where outboards of six horsepower or less are allowed, three are in Harrison county. They are Clendenen, Piedmont and Tappan lakes. No motor boats whatsoever are allowed on Guilford or Zepernick Lakes in Columbiana County or Deer Creek reservoir near Alliance in Stark county.

JAMES HAYDEN, arden Salem angler, lost $150 worth of fishing equipment when thieves broke into his automobile at Evans Lake near North Lima the other day. They even took his lunch which he and William Seaman, former local photographer, had packed. Hayden misses most a fly rod which had been a prized possession for 25 years.

Hases Meet Have-Nots In PGA Tourney

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The have-nots met the haves, and there was a bit of vengeance involved too, as the 35th national PGA championship wheeled into the 36-hole semi-finals today.

The four-man cast was a surprising and rather unlikely one to have emerged from the starting field of 128 qualifiers, but all are par-busters.

The have-nots are Don Whit of Alameda, Calif., a 26-year-old, Lionel Hebert, 29, of Lafayette, Pa. Neither ever has won a tournament on the tour.

The haves are 27-year-old Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who has piled up $18,325 in tournament gold this year, and 28-year-old Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., three times a finalist and once a winner in this classic in the last six years.

Whitt plays Finsterwald, Hebert meets Burkemo. The vengeance angle centers around the fact that Burkemo, in reaching the semi-finals, defeated Lionel's better-known brother Jay, by 2 and 1 Friday.

The oddly-assorted quartet emerged from Friday's two 18-hole rounds while such big-time stars as Sam Snead, three-time winner; Doug Ford, 1955 champion; National Open champion Dick Mayer, and Tommy Bolt headed home with the other vanquished.

The four will split up $19,000 in prize money by Sunday night, with the winner getting $8,000. Whit, for 80 holes is 15 under par and has had only six bogeys. Finsterwald eliminated S nead, the pre-tourney favorite, by 3 and 1, while Jay Hebert was upsetting the No. 2 choice, Ford, by 3 and 2. In Friday's quarter-finals Whit ousted Mayer 2 and 1, Finsterwald beat to fire a 69 to subdue 51-year-old Charles Sheppard of West Newton, Mass., 2 up, Burkemo eliminated Jay Hebert 2 and 1, and Lionel Hebert defeated Claude Harmon of Mamaroneck, N. Y., 2 and 1.

Rory Calhoun Wins Decision Over Ballarin

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Rory Calhoun won the decision but Germain Ballarin, a clever renegade with a slick mustache, won the crowd. Many of the 1,447 customers who paid $3,029 to watch the bitterly contested 10-round nationally televised fight Friday night thought the Parisian deserved the win or at least a large "G" for effort.

However, the men whose judgment is official said Calhoun won unanimously. Referee Joe Palmer had it 5-4-1, Judge Dick Albino scored it a 7-2-1 and Judge Harold McGrath saw it 6-3-1. The AP card returned Calhoun a winner 5-4-1.

Calhoun, the 3 to 1 favorite, bled in with wild lunges often missed fire while the punches. Rory, a 22-year-old middleweight from White Plains, N. Y., who is rated No. 4 contender in the class, was cut on the left cheekbone in the first and Ballarin was sliced around the left eye in the sixth and seventh.

There were wild screams from the French camp in the dressing room after the bout. "I gave my fighter six or seven rounds," said manager George Brettonel. "I was very disappointed with the decision. My fighter was handicapped by the cuts which were provoked by butts."

Calhoun's quarters also talked about a head butt, only the other way around.

Launch Biggest Fight Against Bootleggers

HARLAN, Ky. (AP) — Federal, state and local officers Friday launched what they called "the largest concerted operation against moonshine bootleggers ever to take place in Kentucky."

The raid — a result of several weeks of undercover work — netted 20 Harlan countians and 148 gallons of moonshine. Thirty-two officials participated.

Those arrested were arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Kelly Clure on charges of possession, sale or transportation of untaxed whisky.

Monkey Business

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — When a monkey monkeys around with the Davis clan it's news—especially when the monkey's name is Davis.

Five-year-old Diana Lynn Davis was playing with the monkey Thursday when the animal got tired of the monkey business and bit the girl on the lower left arm. She was treated at the Ohio Valley Hospital and released.

Davis, the monkey, is owned by the girl's grandfather, William Davis.

The biting incident was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Arnold Davis, no relation to the other Davises.

300 ARE LAID OFF
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some 300 of an eventual 3,000 employees have been laid off by North American Aviation, Inc., here.

Company officials announced Friday that the layoffs are the first of a reduction program that will involve about 3,000 by the end of this year. The company employs about 15,000 here.

A spokesman said the layoffs were made necessary because of the "phasing out" of three aircraft models.

NOT ALL ARE HONEST

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Not all people who hang around witness stands are honest.

Warren Orendorf, court bailiff at Common Pleas Court here, shed his coat in hot weather Friday and draped it across the witness stand. A few hours later, Orendorf found the coat minus a fountain pen and a pair of dark glasses.

"I should have known better," said Orendorf.

BOY KILLED BY CAR

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Danny Dutton, 8, was dead on arrival at Massillon City Hospital Friday night after he was struck by a car as he rode his bicycle near an intersection here.

Stand Under 'A' Blast; Call Duty 'Just A Breeze'

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The first five men to intentionally stand under an atomic explosion shrugged their experience off today as just a breeze.

"It's one of the best places to observe a blast that I can think of," said Col. Sydney Bruce, of Durango, Colo.

The first air-to-air atomic rocket ever fired went off more than 15,000 feet—how much more was not disclosed—above the heads of the five Air Defense Command officers.

The rocket was a low-powered weapon compared with most atomic devices, but Lt. Gen. J. H. Atkinson, commander of the defense command, said it could blast a fleet of enemy planes out of the skies.

The little band of officers came out from under the explosion with their neatly pressed khaki uniforms fresh enough for a parade-ground review.

They were assigned to the lonely station at ground zero to bring out a report on what might happen to people below an aerial battle fought with atomic rockets such as the one tested here Friday.

The officers had no protection whatsoever, not even the dark goggles which newsmen wore at their observation point more than 13 miles from the point of explosion.

"We stood there waiting for the launching plane to come in and fire the rocket," Col. Bruce said. "We watched the F89 coming in and we heard the final 10-second count down by radio. When we saw the rocket released we dropped our eyes to a horizontal level."

"The blast didn't even rock us. But the heat from the flash was like when you open the door of a furnace for a moment."

One Gets Probation; Two Are Denied

LISBON — One person received probation and two were refused probation at hearings Friday afternoon before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

Albert Huff, 22, of Columbiana RD 2 was given five years probation for forgery. He admitted altering his check from the Darlington Face Brick Co. from $29.50 to $129.50 and cashing it at a Columbiana bank. He pleaded guilty to the charge and asked for probation at arraignment day April 15.

Howard Henry Mitchell, 18, of Midland, Pa., who was indicted on two counts of auto larceny and driving without the owner's consent, was sentenced to the Mansfield Reformatory for one to 20 years for auto larceny and one to 20 years for driving without the owner's consent. Judge Buzzard then sentenced him to one to 20 years for another offense. He may serve the terms concurrently. Mitchell was on parole for auto larceny when he stole the other two cars in March and April.

Charles McGee, 22, of Midland, Pa., also was sentenced to the Mansfield Reformatory for a term of one to 15 years for his part in the burglary of the Roma Cafe, East Liverpool.

He was on parole for breaking and entering when he committed the burglary with Donald Plance of Midland, Pa. Plance is also serving one to 15 years for the same burglary. He pleaded guilty and asked for immediate sentencing at arraignment day.

Lisbon, Leetonia Clubs Plan Meeting

LISBON — Lisbon Kiwanis Club will meet Monday evening at 6 at the Leetonia Methodist Church as guests of the Leetonia Kiwanis Club.

No meeting is scheduled for the Lisbon Club Thursday, but all who are unable to attend the meeting Monday at Leetonia may go to the Wick Hotel for lunch and a roundtable discussion, President Kenneth Hiscov said. He will also preside at the round table meeting Thursday.

BOUND TO GRAND JURY

CLEVELAND — Ronald Zitek, 19, was bound over to the federal grand jury Friday on a charge of robbing the mails while a letter carrier for the Parma Branch Post Office last winter. In a sackful of 500 letters found in Zitek's former rooming house, postal inspectors said they found one item of value—a high school class ring. The charge against Zitek was based on theft of the ring.

Columbiana Church Sponsors Day Camp

COLUMBIANA — Grace Evangelical and Reformed church is sponsoring a day camp for junior age children from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Ralph Lower farm, near Pine Lake.

Grace church will also be represented in a denominational seminar for high camp at Pilgrim Hills near Brinkhaven next week, sponsored by 10 Evangelical and Reformed and 10 Congregational Christian congregations from over the state. Grace church campers will be Marilyn Schmidt, Carol Keck, Raymond Moser, Thomas Crumbacher and Lucy Keylor, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Keck as counselor.

The 10:45 a.m. service in Grace church Sunday will be sponsored by the Men's Bible class. The Friendly class will have a swimming party and picnic in the afternoon.

hours, and is now awaiting trial on the escape charge.

Why did he come forward with his confession at this time?

Wedge's answer was: "You've got to live with yourself." When the questioning approached that point another time, he mentioned Sheppard and said: "He's got a family and he's got relatives."

Thursby said he hasn't heard from Cleveland police since he sent them a copy of Wedge's statement.

Authorities Express Doubts

Authorities in Cleveland have expressed doubts about Wedge's story. They point to several discrepancies between Wedge's account and facts they gathered in the Sheppard case.

Even though Sheppard will get a lie detector test, the results are not admissible as evidence in Ohio courts.

Gov. Paul M. Herbert, who was Sheppard's co-counsel at his trial, said a motion for a new trial could be filed only if further investigation produces "very convincing evidence."

are providing more money than the House version.

However, during Friday's hectic House session, climaxing a week of debate, aid critics served notice they will oppose any compromise measure which they think gives in too much to the Senate.

And an appropriations bill providing actual funds must still be voted on, since the present authorizing legislation only sets terms and ceilings for the aid program.

Chairman Gordon (D-Ill.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said today the House voted no changes in the authorizing bill that "seriously harm" the legislation.

In its major actions yesterday the House:

1. Voted 155-74 to limit to 60 million dollars next year's economic aid fund to support defense programs of U.S. allies. Eisenhower asked for 90 million dollars and the Senate approved 800 millions.

2. Decided by voice vote to authorize for only the first year of Eisenhower's proposed long-term loan fund for economic development projects overseas. Besides 500 million dollars for the first year, Eisenhower requested 1 1/2 billion dollars for the two succeeding years.
